

August 20, 1996

Dear Fantasy Football Team Owner:

The 1996 Fantasy Football draft will be held Saturday, August 24th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Board Room of Levi Hospital. The Board Room is located on the second floor—upon entering the Hospital at the main entrance on Prospect there is a stairwell to the right which will lead to the second floor, then turn left. Please bring your yarmulke—if you are without, one will be provided at the door. Refreshments and food items will be provided.

For those who are unable to participate in person but wish to call in, the direct line to Board Room is 622-3395. Depending on how many participants are using the phone, you may receive a busy signal, but please be persistent.

The same rule applies as in the past with regards to the draft, with two quarterbacks, four running backs, four wide receivers and two kickers being selected at this time. Supplemental drafts will be announced at a later date.

In the past, there has been some problems with Fantasy Football with team owners not being sufficiently capitalized. Credit cannot be extended past the opening kick-off of the first game on Sunday, September 1st. If you have not paid at that time, your game will be forfeited.

Along with this letter is a form which I ask that you complete regarding the location to which you want your material mailed/faxed. Please complete the form in its entirety. I would prefer not to fax to the office as I take considerable literary license within the newsletter (as some of you may recall from years past). I will mail a hard copy to your office with "PERSONAL" written across the front and back or I will fax or mail to your home.

Lineups will need to be forwarded to my office no later than 5:00 p.m. CST. My office FAX NUMBER IS 622-3500. My Secretary's name is Verna and I will provide her forms for her to assist in taking lineups over the phone. However, it would be prudent for you to utilize the FAX system if at all possible so I can have accurate records of your desire within your own handwriting (in other words, I will not accept an excuse that, "Verna misunderstood").

I wish each of you good luck with the exception of Jim Braun, Don Bodemann, Kevin Hale, Chuck Larrison, Dennis Smith, Darrell Lovass, Dow-Stough/Robert Daniel, Mike Bodemann, Bob Barnett, Mark Varner, Three Amigos (Bill Sorrels), Rob McCrary, Bob Kleinhenz, Rick Henry, and Steve Bodemann. For the rest of you, I wish you the best and successful 1997 Fantasy Football Season.

Sincerely,

Pat McCabe

WEEK 1

Welcome to Fantasy Football '96! !! So-you think you have the ability to be a Champion like the Three Wise Men. For a limited time, you can receive a 90 minute video tape with a step by step account of how the Three Stooges turned into the Three Wise Men to capture the '95" Fantasy Football Super Bowl. You will see footage never seen before including pre-draft conference sessions, the '95" Draft, weekly offensive and defensive strategies which resulted in a 3 game season ending winning streak and a 3 game march through the playoffs. Send $19.95 to Three Wise Men, Hot Springs, AR. For faster ordering call 622-3496 and have your credit card ready. Please allow 10-14 weeks for delivery.

Intermission: Now for all you so called Office Staff which a presume are female, This letter is not meant for you and I have no control over whether you read this or deliver it immediately to the intended party. I must remind you that reading this is a violation of law and you will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, On the other hand, if you do read this and enjoy it you may be my kind of woman. I can be reached at the previously noted number, Please do not call me at home,

Now to some unsettled business. At the last year's Super Bowl Party, while in good spirits, a fellow FF owner spoke negatively towards me. Having taken the Treasures awarded from the league, I was in the running for additional rewards from the Super Bowl points board. When I mentioned that to a fellow owner, he stated "Just what we need, McCabe to win more ." I was crushed, heart broken. I've carried this pain, this hurt all Spring and Summer to get to this DAY. Barnett may Brenda in the heat of doing that nasty thing get a cramp in her calf causing her to bite down hard resulting in your Johnson being severed. I feel much better now, thank you. Irving my meds are starting to work.

On to draft night. Could have been disastrous. Mike B. was having an anxiety attack. Haven't seen him this upset since he chewed out a tourist in-the 19th hole of the HSCC. Nonetheless, the draft must be considered successful since I'm still alive.

Preseason Shit Head Moves:

Barnett Cellars/S. Bodemann drafted a retired player-Faud Reviez.
Dennis Smith drafts Fred Barnett who is injured and out for the year.
Irving Kuo for drafting such a shifty team.

All none Bodermann's remember this most important rule. Never ever feel sorry for a Bodermann. When they are down, kick the living shit out of them. You will never receive any greater satisfaction in your life than seeing a Bodermann dragging their sorry fat asses into a corner while being covered in their own shit. The only good Bodermann is the one without a member. At least I'd have some use for her.

Dear Ken in Knoxville:

By now you probably recognize this style of writing. Yes, I'm Back after a long absence. You remember me don't you. Remember how I introduced you to the guys as the one who delivers babies at night and looks at sick twat during the day. I hope your practice grew because I would hate to have that same old twat hanging around the office all those years. Must go now Ellen is calling me. It is time to eat.

Final thoughts. Your packet should contain a "96" schedule, e-ligting-eflettrinelivielual _Ara-picks, and this weeks line ups. Do to the volume, the draft picks of other teams will be mailed. Check your individual sheets for any errors.

GOOD LUCK

WEEK 2

One week down, 13 regular season weeks left. The first week had some surprises. Who could imagine that Young, Moon, Marino and George would not throw a TD pass. Last year they combined for 104 TD's. On another note: nine FF Teams did not score a TD from a running back. Enough analysis, now on to ridicule and criticism.

Lovaas—Wake Up and smell the coffee. Daryl waltzes into my office Thursday morning asking if I needed something. "Yea, 200 bananas and the Wednesday by 5:00 p.m. CST lineup!!! He states, "I didn't know the lineups were due by 5:00 p.m. CST on Wednesday." I asked, "How many years have you been in the league?" He responds, "Since its inception." I continued, "So Daryl, if you have been in the league since its inception and the lineups are due in by 5:00 p.m. CST for each of those years, What time will lineups be required to be submitted this year?" His response, "Duh?" Does anyone have a dumb blonde joke. I just know Lovaas is going to be a problem the week of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years. (Taking the place of Braun)

BOY, the Daniel/Stough Team took the most important rule to heart, "Never, ever feel sorry for a Bodemann. I saw Mike and he still hasn't gotten all of his shit off: The Bodemann Clan are 1-2.

Poor Klienhenz: I'm sure he stayed up all Monday night watching if his 5pt. Lead against McCrary would hold up. With McCrary having Boniol it was iffy. With 3:31 left in the fourth quarter Klienhenz's hopes/prayers were terminated. I hear that Boniol has an incentive in his contract to kick at least two FGs per game.

Lack of production from Marino kills Amigos. Henry had game won before E. Smith took to the field. Rick, you should have pulled Eminitt. Now he is hurt. Poor coaching will cost you later.

The Battle of the "NO PAYS." Lovaas scores enough to beat everyone else. Favre too much to handle. Dar* criticized my draft pick for him of Touchdown Tommy. Needless to say, Touchdown Tommy scored S.F. first TD.

WEEK 3

Hey Jerk!! (you know who you are) Don't forget the Supplemental Drafts Monday*
September 16 Rock's, 7:30 P.M CST.

WEEK 4 OPEN DATES: Baltimore, Cincinnati, Houston, Pittsburgh.

Poor Kleinhenz Week 1 lost by one pt. Week 2 led by 5 going into Monday Night. Larrison plays with Favre. The internist is much kinder than last week's nephrologist. The kill is quick and painless. Bob can sleep easy knowing he left Opts. on the bench by position. Hey Bob, next week looks promising You play Don Bodemann whose QB- Steve Young has yet to throw a TD or run for one. Anyway he is hurt. Should be a cake walk for you. (Just remembered S.F. is off this weekend.)

Last week's newsletter contained a NEWS FLASH that Hale paid. Kevin had promised to come in the Friday prior to opening weekend but on his return home that Thursday his wife, Kim, told him they were going to Dallas much to his surprise. Since I stated non-payers would forfeit Game 1 if they didn't pay I had to call Kim to verify his story. She insisted he was aware of their trip but forgot. She also stated that each morning she must remind him that he is a family practitioner and not a cardiovascular surgeon, that he is employed by National Park not St. Joe. Etc. God bless you Kim. You didn't marry a husband, you married a life long project!!

Kevin, sorry to hear you are moving off the lake soon. I enjoyed fishing at night just off your condo. Say, is that a bruise on Kim's right buttocks or a mole? Perhaps, you should pull the drapes.

Lovaas 45 M. Bodemann 33

Lovaas led 33 to 27 going into Monday Night. Daryl adds 12 from Brooks vs. 6 points from Waiters for Mike. Anything from Steve Young (0 points) would have made this a great game.

Smith 35 Henry 42 .

Dennis leads by 5 going into Monday Night. Rick gets 13 from Jacke. Dennis is 0-2 but improved from his 6 point production in Week 1.

Daniel/Stough 26 Varner 30

Varner trails DanieVStough by 8 points going into Monday Night Again, the kill is quick and painless as Favre throws 2 TD's early and another in the 2^d half However, Varner is a non-payer to date and will be barred from the Supplemental Draft September 16⁶ if payment is not made prior to then.

Three Amigos 27 Barnett 18

Only match-up without Monday Night participation. Barnett loses for the first time though should be second loss. Week I, Barnett needed only 7 points to win, he actually scored 13. Barnett is another "dead beat" and will be barred from the Supplemental Draft if payment is not made.

WEEK 4

Where do I begin? Wasn't sure I had enough material to write an entertaining newsletter until I spoke to Steve B. and Kevin Hale last Wednesday.

But first things first!! WEEKS OPEN DATES: BUFFALO INDIANAPOLIS MIAMI, NEW ENGLAND!!!

The time-4:45 p.m. The date—Wednesday, September 11, 1996. Cellars/ Bodemann have 2 players from previous week with open dates but no phone call from owners to change line up. Commissioner calls S. Bodemann office. Steveotonnts is OUT but he is paged. Steve has never returned a page so fast in his life. Says that he driving between hospitals hit a ping pong ball. Tough shit Stevel I I'm playing MOTHER HUBBARD. If not for a game of unbeatens I wouldn't give a rat's ass. Didn't help him though.

Then there is Kevin Hale, the owner featured in last week's newsletter. My secretary, Verna, and I had all FF paperwork ready to fax by 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, September 11. After S. Bodemann call, only Hell to wait on, to wait on, to wait on. At 5:00 p.m., no call from Hell so I push Fax Button #20—Automated Fax list Activated. Verna and I close the office door at 5:05 p.m.. Verna goes her way, I go mine. I transverse the 4 blocks home in 38.3 seconds. At 5:15 p.m., Dip Shit (I mean the respectable Dr. Hell) calls my home. The conversation goes like this. Hell-"Hey, why did you close your office early7 Pat-"We didn't close early. I locked the door at 5:05." K-"Did Not!" P-"Did to." K-"Did Not!" P-"Did to" K-"Did Not" P-"DID TO YOU STUPID SOB!!!"

Hell stated he would like to make some changes. I concurred since the team Irving drafted is going no where. Anyway, to stop all the whining I caved in.

On Thursday morning, I informed Verna that Hell had accused us of closing shop early. Now Verna is about 60 years old and I have never seen this side of her as she said, That peckerwood. That SOB caused me to stay late for no fucking reason. Mr. McCabe, I have raised two sons already. I'm too old to raise another. I'll QUIT!!!! I told her to relax and that I would handle this.

BOTTOM LINE: If Verna's not happy, I'm not happy. Line ups must be in by 5:00 p.m. CST. If not, don't call since our goal is to push Fax Button 20 at 5:00.

Mike Bodemann 30

Three Amigos 35

Very good ball game and tough loss for Mike Bodemann. Marino for the Amigos throws three touchdown passes but none to O.J. McDuffie which would have given Mike the win. However; could have been a larger margin of victory for the Amigos had Buffalo been more active in the scoring column with the possibility of Thurman Thomas scoring a touchdown.

Henry 36

Daniel/Stough 41

Daniel/Stough over came 0 points from Scott Mitchell with two touchdowns from Barry Sanders. They win during the Monday Night Football Game when Jerome Bettis breaks away for their winning touchdown. d) These is no wrong answer. (personal preference) Henry has good balance scoring with four of seven players scoring, however, without Mitchell throwing any touchdown passes to Herman Moone, Henry loses.

Varner 12

Smith 24

Could be the most stupid play of the year as outlined in the cover letter. Varner pulls Favre for Jim Kelly. Favre scores 18, but Kelly scores 0. Eighteen points would have allowed Varner to remain unbeaten. Dennis receives a cheap win with only 2 of 7 players scoring, one being his field goal kicker.

FANTASY FOOTBALL

1996 WEEK 5

Writing this letter has become a little bit easier now that the Three Wise Men (according to Irving Kuo) posted their first victory? More on that later.

WEEK 6 OPENDATES: Arizona, Dallas, NY Giants, Philadelphia, Tampa Bay, Washington and A Boy Named Sue.

CORRECTIONS ¹¹¹¹¹

Let's return to Week Three Results for a moment. In the game between D. Bodemann and Bob Kleinhenz, I had the score Bod. 35, Bob 30. I inadvertently misread a zero for Rodney Hampton as a 6 thereby causing Bob to lose by 5 rather than winning by 1. Unfortunately, there was irreparable harm to Bob. Following his perceived third loss, Bob sought the attention of Irving Kuo. A short hospitalization was necessary. While the medications had limited success, news that he might have actually won started to filter through to the other patients before I could confirm. I realized that I MUST CONFIRM prior the other patients tugging on his gown and whispering the possibility into his ear. I was able to confirm! Don had called me to question his winning rather than losing. When I informed Bob of this BODEMANN'S HONESTY AND INTEGRITY, Bob started shouting in tongues then got tongue tie as he shouted, "LONG LIVE DON, LONG LIVE DON, LONG LIVE DONG, LONG LIVE DONG, LONG DONG LIVES, LONG DONG LIVES 111!111(rtm truly any.)"

In Week 4 Newsletter, I wrote of Varner pulling Favre for Kelly. We all know the result, "Now You Will Hear The Rest Of The Story." By the time Mark called in his lineup last Wednesday the first two pages of the newsletter was already produced so I couldn't put in his stupid comment until now. The conversation goes like this. Mark—"Heyyyyyyyyyy, suppose you are wondering why I pulled Favre for Kelly last week? P—"Because your a stupid shithead?? Yea, I have nothing better to do than look out my office picture window and contemplate the chemical reaction (or lack thereof) within your flicking head which resulted in the top running HEAD IN THE BUTTE PLAY OF THE YEAR. M—"I thought Green Bay was OFF.

Now I know that I faxed the newsletter to the Bodemann Clan for distribution which includes Ma& Perhaps this was the newsletter Sorrells made off with prior to Jeanne being able to distribute copies to everyone. Investigation to continue.

Mark, In the event that you just failed to READ your newsletter let me remind you that all Open Dates are identified on Page 1 each week for the NEXT WEEK

More Projects:

Mark to assist you-Green Bay is of Week 8, Sunday October 20. The lineup will be due Wednesday, October 16 at 5:00. Why don't you fill out Week 8 roster right now with Kelly's name in for QB. Remember, only one off week per season per team. Therefore, unless Fevre is hospitalized in a drug rehab center play him during WEEKS 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, stupid shithead!!!!

Then there was the Braunster. On Week 3 weekend, Kleinhenz and Braun take wives to a couple swap in New York City. Bob calls in lineup from NYC with Robin giggling in the background. Didn't hear from the Braun. Both due back Wednesday, still time to give lineup for Week 4. At 4:30 p.m. Wednesday I call his office. They say he won't be in until Thursday. I call his home, Braun answers. Pat-"Hey Jim, Pat here, have any lineup changes. Jim-"Hey I do but rll call you tonight" P-"What time zone are you in right now" B-"Oh no, how much time do I have." P-" 27 minutes and counting" B-"Let's see, What do you think Pat, etc.etc.etc. At 4:57 he Snaky submits a damn lineup. It is only 200 bananas Jim. Anyway, I can't believe he would seek counsel from someone 0-3 _

QUESTION OF TEE WEEK:

Which owner(s) is the biggest lifelong project for all who come to know them?

- a) Kevin Hell
- b) Steve Bodemann
- c) Mark Butte Head Varner
- d) Braunster
- e) There is no wrong answer.

NEW AND ACTUAL BUSINESS

At the Supplemental Draft, the Commissioner inadvertently sought 10 bananas from each owner for a late season loser playoff Some owners paid, others revolted. Stated they had increased the banana count on admission several years ago to avoid this.(probably the losers were unwilling to cough up) Anyway, I was unable to ratan bananas to Henry; Amigos, Barnett. Unfortunately, the kids milk and lunch money was due and the extra bananas helped out.

The funny man laughs no more. Without a win the newsletter is becoming a hardship to write and may become very short if the trend continues. Question of the Week is very simple. What do the Three Wise Men, Atlanta, New Orleans and the Jets have in common. Answer. They are winless!!

The time-12:45p.m. The date—Wednesday, October 2, 1996. Just received a call from Barnett asking if it is too late to change his lineup. He stated that he couldn't remember if the cut-off was Tuesday or Wednesday. On a count of three lets all say SHITHEAD. One, two, three SHITHEAD!! Actually, Dennis Smith stated recently that "shithead " must be a preferred word in my vocabulary. Actually, it is just a trend. It is a combination of a noun and adjective.

1995 FANTASY FOOTBALL LEAGUE PREVIEW

January 29, 1995

Yes fantasy football team owners, the 1995 draft is only 208 days away. My how time flies. Based upon my less than stellar finish during the 1994 season (I can't even say "thank God for Dow!") and my willingness to assume the position of Commissioner, I have been given the title of "Commissioner by Default" (CBD).

Two weeks ago at a high level, select, secret owners' meeting held on the grounds of the Bodemann Mountain Gymnasium, suggestions for the forthcoming season were discussed and are listed below for your review and comment.

1. Entry fee: $200 per team. Fee includes two supplemental drafts to be held on the Mondays after weeks three and eight.

2. Total purse of $3,000 to be allocated as follows: a.

Final conference standings

|-----------|------------|
| 1st place | $ 250 |
| 2nd place | 175 |
| 3rd place | 125 |
| 4th place | 100 |

b. Playoffs:

|---------------------|-------|
| Round 1 winners (2) | $100 |
| Round 2 winners | $200 |
| Super Bowl winner | $500 |

c. Weirdo Side Contests:

Season high point total: $100

Single week high point total: $100 Last-week-of-season-high-low-total-roster-scoring-free-for-all (Super Bowl contestants are excluded): $100 each. If there is a tie for either high or low, total prize of $200 goes to winner of other contest

Summary of Purse Allocation:

|--|-----------------|
| Final conference standings ($650 x 2 div) | $ 1,300 |
| Playoffs ($200+20-400 x 2 div=800+500) | 1,300 |
